Dear Harold,

"Oh no, not this kid again!" Don't worry, no need to reply to this letter. I know that you are busy and have no time. I just wanted to say thanks for the books and the letter. Also, I wanted to clear something up. In your letter, you seemed almost angry at me for inquiring about your appearance in a video about Jim Garrison. Please understand that I meant no insult to you by asking and was only seeking an explanation. Now that I have one, my opinion of Garrison and especially the people he chooses to associate with have lessened even more. Also, thanks for setting me straight with regards to Connally's back wound. Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Joe A. Cornejo

P.S.- You and your wife did not need to send me a refund check, but thank you and please thank her for me.
